About this section: in Vedic astrology every planet "sees" the 7th sign from itself, while Mars additionally aspects the 4th and 8th, Jupiter the 5th and 9th, and Saturn the 3rd and 10th. An aspect transfers the aspecting planet's nature onto whatever it falls on — read down each row to see which planets and houses receive that planet's gaze.

THE HEART OF THIS REPORT

Bhavaphal — House by House Analysis

Each of the twelve houses governs an area of your life. Below, every house is read through its lord's placement, the planets that occupy and aspect it, and the classical combinations formed — assembled specifically for your chart.

1st House Self, Body & Personality ♉ Taurus

♀ Venus rules this house and is placed in your 11th house. No planet occupies this house — its lord carries the results.

Your lagna rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. The bhava neither adds to nor reduces what the grahas promise. Results depend on your lagna lord's condition and on the running dasha.

No graha occupies your lagna, so your chart is read mainly through your lagna lord. You may not have one dominant trait that people identify you by. You are likely to take your character from whatever you are working on at the time.

Since your Lagna lord is in the 11th house, which is known as the house of gains, you will succeed in making wealth through your own efforts. Since the 11th house is a upachaya house, you will see success in the middle ages, but the growth will be steady. You will be financially strong, and once you start thinking about making wealth, you will work hard to achieve your dreams. You will be very social and will make friends easily. Overindulgence with friends and social circle may harm your personal/marital life. You will get support and care from your elder sibling. You will be very successful in business. Since the 11th house is the enemy of the house of enemies (6th house from the 6th house), you may mistake by putting the wrong people in your list of enemies.

Since Mars is aspecting Lagna, you will be charitable, ambitious and hardworking. You may show an uncompromising and rude attitude at times.

BHAVA CHALIT NOTE — position shifts in the Bhavam chart

According to Bhava Chalit Chart, the position of Sun is changed; you may experience results as per the Bhavam chart more effectively as time progresses. Bhavam Chart Result: Since Sun is in 1st house, You will have a confident look with prominent eyes and be inclined towards taking authoritative roles. You will have the independence, energy and enthusiasm to take charge of a situation. However, you may be unable to control your temper during crucial circumstances. You may suffer from thinning hair.

2nd House Wealth, Family & Speech ♊ Gemini

☿ Mercury rules this house and is placed in your 12th house. Occupied by Jupiter.

Your 2nd rashi has few ashtakavarga bindus. Even good placements here may deliver slowly. Your money needs conscious management rather than being left to gather. Transits through this rashi are periods to consolidate rather than commit.

Your 2nd lord stands in a Dusthana Bhava at ordinary strength. Your money and family matters may follow an uneven line rather than a steady rise. Periods of saving may alternate with periods when obligations absorb what you saved. Do not treat a good stretch as permanent.

Your 2nd lord is vakri. Money and family matters may return to you rather than closing. An old debt, an unsettled family property matter, or an income source you had given up may come back. Settle such matters properly the first time instead of leaving them open.

Your 2nd lord is in yuti with a paapa graha and receives no shubha drishti. Your speech may land harder than you intend. You may say the accurate thing at the moment it is least welcome, and be surprised at the reaction. Wait one moment before answering. In a dispute, writing serves you better than speaking.

The second house indicates matters related to fixed assets, wealth, family, speech, face, throat, and voice. Since your 2nd lord is situated in the 12th house, representing Moksha, spirituality, secret enemies, expenditure and losses, you will be earning through foreign sources. You tend to spend more and may not be very aware of your earnings. You will also be very spiritual and may gain knowledge related to spirituality. There are chances you will live in a foreign land. You may earn money and assets in a distant land. Even though you have worldly comforts and luxuries, you may not be much delighted with those things.

Since a natural benefic Jupiter is situated in the 2nd house without any presence of natural malefic planets, indicates wealth, wisdom, kindness and intelligence.

A Guru-Mangal Yoga is formed with the 2nd house involved. You will gain wealth and assets with your hardwork, righteousness and determination.

Since the 2nd lord and the 4th lord are in conjunction, you may expect good support from your maternal side. You will also gain from your career, property or vehicles

Since Jupiter is in the 2nd house, you are charitable and good at spending money selflessly for your family members. Your financial condition will always be excellent and safe. You will be learned, and your speech will be righteous and pious. You may be fond of eating and be fortunate to have your desired food.

3rd House Courage, Siblings & Skills ♋ Cancer

☽ Moon rules this house and is placed in your 8th house. Occupied by Ketu.

A paapa graha occupies your 3rd house. The 3rd is an Upachaya Bhava, so a paapa graha here gives strength rather than trouble. You may work better under pressure than without it, and you may finish things because they were hard. The cost is that you can be hard on people who need more patience than you have.

Your 3rd lord has dignity or strength. Your courage is the kind that finishes rather than the kind that rushes. You decide after weighing a matter, and you are then hard to move. You have stamina for long work that tires people who began with more enthusiasm.

Mercury, the karaka of communication, is weak in your chart or stands in a Dusthana Bhava. Putting your thoughts into words may take you longer than it takes others. You may know more than you can easily explain. Written work is likely to serve you better than speaking without preparation.

Your 3rd rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. Your initiative neither runs ahead of you nor drags. Results depend on your 3rd lord's condition, on Mars, and on the running dasha.

Your 3rd lord stands in a Dusthana Bhava. Your effort may not reach you as credit. The work gets done, but the result may go elsewhere or arrive after it was needed. Your younger siblings may live at a distance from you. Keep written records of what you did and when, because this placement rewards documentation.

Saturn occupies your 3rd house or gives drishti to it. Your courage is slow, deliberate and durable. You may act later than others and stay with a thing longer. You may have fewer siblings, or an age gap that made you more like an only child. Your speech is careful, and people may take your silence for disagreement.

The third house indicates matters related to confidence, courage, travel, communication, arts and culture, younger siblings etc. Since your 3rd lord is situated in the 8th house, representing mystery, occult, sudden events, longevity, unearthed treasure etc., you will be interested in mysterious things and stories. You may be a writer or blogger related to these things. Since both 3rd and 8th houses relate to gossip, secrets and mysteries, you may face accusations or gossip, so you need to be careful in maintaining your personal reputation. You may keep your life very secret, and even some of your hobbies may not be known to others close to you. Even though you are loyal and sincere in the relationship, there may be some troubles due to communication. You should avoid being involved in situations that are not connected to you. You may be separated from your siblings.

Since Ketu is in the 3rd house, you will have multiple hidden talents and skills and be creative. You may get detached from your younger siblings even though you are mentally attached to them. You will be wealthy and successful through your own skills. You will also be spiritual in the true sense.

4th House Home, Mother & Comforts ♌ Leo

☉ Sun rules this house and is placed in your 12th house. No planet occupies this house — its lord carries the results.

The Moon, karaka of the 4th bhava, stands in a Dusthana Bhava or in yuti with a paapa graha. You may not feel calm easily, and peace of mind may take effort from you. A noisy or untidy house may disturb you more than it disturbs other people. An argument left unfinished may stay in your mind for days. A fixed place of your own and a daily routine you keep will help you more than anything else.

Your 4th house, its lord and the Moon are all under pressure, and no shubha graha gives drishti to the bhava. You may live at a distance from your mother. This may be a physical distance through migration or early separation, or a difference of temperament where the affection was real but understanding was not. The bond usually improves when you accept the relationship as it is rather than the one you expected.

Your 4th lord has dignity or strength. Your basic security is likely to be sound. A place to live and a vehicle may come to you without extraordinary struggle, and property you acquire is likely to stay with you. You are likely to have somewhere to go back to when things go badly.

Your 4th rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. The bhava neither strengthens nor drains what the grahas promise. Results depend on your 4th lord's condition, on the Moon, and on the running dasha.

Your 4th lord stands in a Dusthana Bhava. Being settled may be a recurring project rather than something you have. You may face moves, repairs, disputes over property, or long stretches living somewhere that was meant to be temporary. Living far from your birthplace is common with this placement, and often turns out to have been right. Build your base deliberately rather than assuming one.

The fourth house indicates matters related to Mother, Home, Vehicles, Happiness, Peace, general education etc. Since your 4th lord is situated in the 12th house, representing Moksha, spirituality, secret enemies, expenditure and losses you will be a spiritual person, as both the 4th house and 12th house are known to be moksha trikon houses. You may be worried about your mother's health and have to live away from your homeland and travel to a distant land for education. You may have to face some challenges in life and may undergo mental stress. However, you will enjoy having a peaceful and good night of sleep. You are good at hiding your real emotions and may not show distress even during pressure. You may also lose your temper during unexpected moments. You may be an eternal seeker and may not be interested in businesses or other activities that make wealth. You must take care of your health and be careful while driving.

Mars is aspecting the 4th house. You will enjoy the luxuries of landed properties, properties or apartment flats. You will be ambitious and a go-getter. Sometime you may lack patience in home and family environment.

BHAVA CHALIT NOTE — position shifts in the Bhavam chart

Since your 4th lord is in the Lagna as per the Bhava Chalit chart, you may also experience the results according to Bhavam Chart. In most cases, more prominent effects will be as per Bhavam Chart, which is usually felt as time progresses. Bhava Chart result: You will be a peace-loving and happy person. Lord of a Moksha trikon house (4th) sitting in a Dharma trikon house (Lagna) is generally considered good. You will have a pure heart with righteous living and move on the right spiritual path. You are born in a comfortable home environment, attached to your mother, will be a learned person, and interested in learning new things. You will also benefit from properties, vehicles and houses. You may not be very confident while speaking in front of an audience and may lack some communication abilities. You will find success and happiness in your career and apply your learned skills well in your professional life.

5th House Children, Intellect & Creativity ♍ Virgo

☿ Mercury rules this house and is placed in your 12th house. No planet occupies this house — its lord carries the results.

Your 5th rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. The bhava neither strengthens nor drains what the grahas promise. Results depend on your 5th lord's condition, on Jupiter, and on the running dasha.

Mercury is weak in your chart or stands in a Dusthana Bhava. You may think clearly but take time to put your thoughts in order. You may understand a thing well and struggle to set it out. Written notes and a fixed method help you more than relying on memory.

Your 5th lord stands in a Dusthana Bhava. Creative work, education and matters concerning children may take an indirect route. Study may be interrupted and resumed later, you may develop skills outside the places that would have paid for them, and plans for children may not follow the expected order. This does not block you. It changes your route. What you build this way is usually more your own.

Your 5th lord is vakri. You may return to learning you abandoned. A subject dropped at twenty may be taken up again at forty, and a creative practice may resume after a long gap. Your education is rarely finished on the first attempt and rarely wasted on the second.

The fifth house indicates matters related to children, speculation, higher education, fame, authority, love, intelligence etc. Since your 5th lord is situated in the 12th house, representing Moksha, spirituality, secret enemies, pleasure, expenditure and losses. You will be a seeker of the truth behind the mysteries of this universe. You may pursue your education in distant lands. You may also be overly cautious about your children and more demanding. It will be helpful to maintain the balance of spirituality and detachment with your family life. Your children may feel imprisoned by not being able to live according to their likes, which may cause some indifferences between you and your children. You should be careful against hidden enemies. It would be best to stay away from speculative business and share markets. However, you can do well in speculative businesses in foreign lands. You can be a good writer or an educationalist.

Since Venus is aspecting the 5th house, you will be popular among the opposite sex. Your love life will also be good. You may be creative and talented in arts and music. You may make profits through stock market and speculations.

Since Mars is aspecting the 5th house, you will be determined and active in professional life. Your love life may not be very fruitful and may see some ups and downs. You may be strict towards children

6th House Health, Service & Obstacles ♎ Libra

♀ Venus rules this house and is placed in your 11th house. No planet occupies this house — its lord carries the results.

Your 6th lord has dignity and strength. In most bhavas this is good news. In the bhava of opposition it means your opponents are capable. Your competitors may be genuinely able, your disputes properly fought, and the obligations you take on large. You also gain from this. You have a strong capacity for sustained work and for handling conflict that others avoid. You do well in professions that involve contest, and badly when you pretend a conflict is not happening.

The 6th house governs recovery as much as difficulty, and in your chart its lord is not badly placed. Your stamina holds up under long demand. You recover from setbacks rather than carrying them forward. A regular routine helps you more than intense effort. Regular sleep and regular meals are worth more to you than any programme done in bursts.

Your 6th rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. Your opposition and obligations run at ordinary strength. How they resolve depends on your 6th lord's condition and on the running dasha.

Saturn occupies your 6th house or gives drishti to it. Saturn works well in this bhava. You may outlast your opponents rather than defeat them quickly. You may be steady with debts and repay them fully, though slowly. Your health may need a routine rather than treatment. Long service in one place may suit you better than frequent changes.

Your 6th house is one of the weakest in your chart by bhava bala. For this bhava that is good. There is very little force behind opposition, debt and illness in your life. Your opponents have caused you more disturbance than actual harm, and that is likely to continue.

The 6th house also governs your mother's relatives, meaning uncles, aunts and cousins on her side. In your chart this bhava is supported. That side of the family may have helped you in practical ways. They may have come when help was needed, opened a door in your work, or stayed in contact when others drifted away. The obligations you have carried have more often been to that side than the other.

The sixth house indicates matters related to services, illness, debts, enemies, relatives, agriculture, etc. Since your 6th lord is situated in the 11th house, representing profits, gains, income, elder sibling and social networks, you are determined and highly focused on your desires and dreams. You are clever and cunning enough to plan and execute things to fulfil your objectives. You are inclined toward worldly comforts and may spend more on these things. It is imperative to check on unwanted expenditures happening within your family, or else there will be a financial crisis in your life. You will be clever, courageous and adventurous to take on your enemies to your advantage. You may gain through your enemies and competitions. Since the 6th and 11th are known as upachaya houses, the strength and positivity will accumulate over time, and you can expect positive results later. You will have a well connected social network; however, you need to be careful against jealous eyes and hidden enemies.

You show affection by what you do rather than by what you say.

Your Upapada Lagna falls in a Dusthana Bhava from your lagna. Your marriage may need deliberate care rather than running on its own. Both of you may need to say your expectations out loud. Address periods of strain early rather than absorbing them. Read this together with the rest of this section, because one indicator alone settles nothing.

Your 7th lord has dignity or strength. You can sustain a long relationship, deal fairly in agreements, and be relied on by people who commit to you. Your public dealings go well for the same reason. People treat you as trustworthy before you have done anything to earn it.

Your 7th rashi has a high number of ashtakavarga bindus. Your partnership has capacity of its own. Your relationships absorb strain without breaking, and your agreements hold. Transits through this rashi tend to bring people into your life rather than take them away.

8th House Longevity, Depth & Transformation ♐ Sagittarius

♃ Jupiter rules this house and is placed in your 2nd house. Occupied by Moon.

Your 8th house receives shubha drishti. Change in your life usually arrives with warning and leaves you better placed than before. Changes that felt sudden at the time made sense later. You are protected during upheaval, not because disruption is absent, but because help reliably arrives before the worst of it. You are probably more resilient than you think.

Your 8th lord has dignity or strength and stands outside the Dusthana Bhavas. The matters of your 8th house carry real weight. Your changes are large rather than small. Your joint financial arrangements are significant. Your capacity to go deep into a subject is genuine. A life with more upheaval than average is also a life with more depth than average.

Your 8th rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. Change and depth run at ordinary strength in your life. How they play out depends on your 8th lord's condition and on the running dasha.

Jupiter occupies your 8th house or gives drishti to it. This is the best influence this bhava can receive. When disruptions arrive, something is usually already in place to meet them. During periods of change you may have advice, resources or people that make the transition manageable. You look for what a difficulty means rather than only for how to escape it.

The 8th house governs what is not said, and in your chart it is occupied. There is a part of your life that even people close to you do not see. Nothing is being hidden from them. You are built to keep some things unshared, and the alternative makes you uncomfortable. This makes you a good keeper of other people's confidences. It also means that when you are struggling, the people around you find out later than they would like.

The eighth house indicates mystery, occult, sudden events, longevity, unearthed treasure, etc. Since your 8th lord is situated in the 2nd house, representing fixed assets, wealth, family, food, face, voice, and speech, you may see a sudden fall in wealth and assets if you are not a good financial planner. The 8th lord in the 2nd house carries a strong maraka (killer planet) aspect, so it is advised to follow a healthy lifestyle and give proper medical attention to unhealthy bodily symptoms; else, the dasha or antardasha periods of the 8th lord can become life-threatening. However, this planetary combination produces certain good things like sudden financial gains due to the aspect of the 8th lord over the 8th house. You may not follow a healthy food intake pattern or like your food. You may have eye trouble or dental ailments, especially during the middle ages, and fix your deformed teeth. You may also have to deal with unexpected and unpleasant events in marital life. You may become wealthy through sources unknown to others, or there are chances you won't disclose your income sources to friends and relatives.

Since Moon is in the 8th house, you may see unexpected financial gains through your spouse. You may undergo anxiety and fear of unknown matters. It is advised to stay away from any sort of addiction. Generally, your marital life will be peaceful, and your spouse will be supportive, but sometimes you may feel a lack of marital bliss. You will have good longevity.

9th House Fortune, Dharma & Father ♑ Capricorn

♄ Saturn rules this house and is placed in your 9th house. Occupied by Saturn, Rahu.

Your 9th lord stands in swakshetra or uccha rashi in a Kendra or Trikona Bhava, and your lagna lord is also well placed. This is Lakshmi Yoga. Timing tends to work in your favour. Help may reach you without your asking for it, and your effort may meet less resistance than other people's. People generally trust you, and that trust is usually earned.

Your 9th house carries paapa graha influence and no shubha drishti, though its lord is not badly placed. You may respect your father and disagree with him at the same time. The disagreement may be about your direction in life or about principles. Arguing with him is probably where you learned to hold your own position. Keep this relationship going deliberately, because it will not maintain itself.

The Sun, karaka of the father, is weak in your chart or stands in a Dusthana Bhava. Your father's support may have been present but limited. He may have mattered to you without being fully available. You may have built your own authority rather than inheriting it, and you may still feel uneasy holding it even when you hold it well.

Your 9th house sits between two paapa grahas. This is paapa kartari. Your fortune has tended to arrive with conditions attached. Help may have come with obligations, and good timing may have required something difficult in exchange. Long journeys and dealings with institutions carry friction for you. Be patient with the process, and do not read the conditions as a personal slight.

Your 9th lord has dignity or strength. Opportunities tend to appear when you are ready for them. Difficult situations resolve more often than the odds suggest. You may have noticed that you often arrive somewhere at the right moment. Use this rather than count on it, because this configuration rewards people who are prepared.

Your 9th rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. The bhava neither adds to nor reduces what the grahas promise. Results depend on your 9th lord's condition, on Jupiter, and on the running dasha.

Rahu occupies your 9th house. You may live or work far from where you were born. Your beliefs may differ from your family's. Long journeys are a regular part of your life, and the ones that mattered were probably not the ones you planned most carefully. This tends to widen your life rather than unsettle it.

Since the Sun is in mritha avastha, it gives only a small part of its strength. Whatever your chart promises through the Sun arrives thinly. Your father's backing, your own authority and your public standing all give less than their placements suggest. These are real, but they need more effort from you than the chart alone would indicate.

Your 9th lord is vakri. You return to the same questions. A philosophy set aside may be picked up again, study abandoned may be resumed, and a place may be visited more than once. You reach your convictions slowly and revise them more often than others do. This looks like inconsistency from outside and is closer to honesty.

Your 9th lord is vargottama. It holds the same rashi in the Rashi chart and in the Navamsha. Your beliefs are steady and change little through your life. The good fortune you have is dependable rather than occasional.

The ninth house indicates matters related to father, guru, foreign travel, fortune, higher knowledge, religion, God etc. Since your 9th lord is situated in its own house, you will generally be very fortunate. Your father will be long-lived and will be an influential person. Your success will come through your efforts and determination. You will be capable of acquiring higher intelligence and knowledge by yourself. Since the 9th lord is casting aspect over the 3rd house, you will be having cordial relationships with your younger siblings. They will be fortunate and prosperous. This planetary combination is considered very auspicious, which will make one very wealthy and successful, and you will be able to benefit from its positive results through your righteous living. Your spiritual inclination will be pure and potent, which will be the driving force towards your success. You may keep a duality in social life, creating confusion among your networks. However, your public image will stay high and good. You may become wealthy through foreign connections or foreign countries. You will also have a pleasing personality and communication skills. You will be courageous to perform any virtuous act and get the support and appreciation of others and higher authorities.

Since Rahu is in the 9th house, your religious beliefs and related lifestyle will differ from others. You may not practice what you preach or say. Your spouse may be demanding in relationships. You may also have trouble with paternal inheritance or misunderstandings with your father. You will engage in foreign travels. You are money minded and will work hard for it.

Since Saturn is in the 9th house, you believe in spiritual Karma but may not appear spiritual to others. you will be religious and traditional in your ways, and sometimes you can be a strict parent. You are righteous in your undertakings and will be hardworking to achieve your goals. You may travel to a foreign land and make a fortune and wealth. However, there may be obstacles in life that you will be able to tackle with your disciplined mindset and determination.

10th House Career, Karma & Status ♒ Aquarius

♄ Saturn rules this house and is placed in your 9th house. Occupied by Mars.

Your 10th lord is vargottama. It holds the same rashi in the Rashi chart and in the Navamsha. Your working life is steady. The kind of work that suits you in your twenties is likely to suit you in your fifties, so a change of field later is unlikely to satisfy you.

A paapa graha occupies your 10th house and a shubha graha gives drishti to it. The paapa graha gives you drive and the capacity for hard conditions. The shubha graha keeps that from making you difficult to work with. This is close to the best condition for this bhava. You can push hard without losing the people around you.

Your Amatyakaraka is Mars, and it is connected to your 10th house. The Amatyakaraka is the Jaimini indicator of profession, so your livelihood and your natural ability are the same thing. Your work is likely to involve force, tools or contest. Engineering, surgery, defence, sport, land and construction may suit you.

Your 10th lord has dignity or strength. Whatever your field, you can hold a position and be depended on. Your effort turns into standing without your needing unusual luck. You are promoted for being competent more reliably than most people are. This is a quiet advantage and a rare one.

Your 10th rashi has a high number of ashtakavarga bindus. Your working life has capacity of its own. Your positions hold, and your reputation survives disruption. Transits through this rashi are among the better windows for a move or a promotion.

Your 10th lord is vakri. Your career doubles back. You may leave a field and return to it, rejoin an employer, or find that skills you set aside for years turn out to be the ones that matter. Your progress looks uneven from outside, but it follows a pattern. What you return to is usually something you left unfinished, not something that failed.

The tenth house indicates Karma, profession, personal growth, fame, awards, etc. Since your 10th lord is situated in the 9th house, representing father, guru, foreign travel, fortune, higher knowledge, religion, God etc., you will be naturally fortunate in your career and professional life. You may be born in a professionally well-established family or a family with a founded business. You will be inclined towards righteousness and truthfulness, which will be your objective in running a business or leading a professional role. You will be wealthy, your financial status will be solid and sound, and you will be generous to charities. The relationship between the powerful Kendra house (10th house) and Trikon house (9th house) is generally considered a Raja yoga and highly favourable in fortune, Divine grace, prosperity and wisdom. Your social status will improve over time, and you will have a good social image, name and fame. You may travel to foreign lands for business, career or higher studies. You may expect good support from your father in all your undertakings. You will be religious and knowledgeable in spiritual matters but not be very conservative. You will be willing to accept the social changes according to new ages and eras.

Since Mars is in the 10th house, a powerful yoga named Kuladeepak (star of the family) is formed, making you the most important person who brings the name and fame to others in the family. You will be highly ambitious, optimistic and determined, and this will help you rise toward prominence and prosperity in later years. Others will appreciate your leadership and organization skills.

11th House Gains, Income & Aspirations ♓ Pisces

♃ Jupiter rules this house and is placed in your 2nd house. Occupied by Venus.

Shubha grahas occupy the Upachaya Bhavas of your chart. This gives you material independence. You may not become very wealthy, but you are unlikely to depend on anyone else for your circumstances. Your resources build up steadily from ordinary sources rather than arriving all at once, and what you build up is hard to lose. You may not be the wealthiest person you know, but you worry about money less than most of them.

Your 11th house receives shubha drishti and its lord is not badly placed. The people around you help you in practical ways. They open doors for you, speak for you without being asked, and turn up when something needs doing. Your elder siblings and older friends have given you real help rather than only affection. Much of what your chart promises reaches you through these people.

Your 11th house sits between two paapa grahas. This is paapa kartari. Your gains arrive with limits attached. Income may come with obligations, your ambitions may be constrained by circumstances you did not choose, and your social circle may cost as much as it returns. This pressure has helped you rather than held you back. You have learned to find income in places that easier charts never look.

Your 11th lord has dignity or strength. What you set out to obtain, you generally obtain. The income sources you establish tend to hold. Your wishes are not blocked, but they arrive one at a time. You get what you want, though rarely all at once and rarely in the order you wanted it.

Your 11th rashi has few ashtakavarga bindus. Your income needs deliberate cultivation rather than being trusted to grow. Look after your income sources instead of assuming they will continue, and keep your network active instead of leaving it alone. Transits through this rashi are periods to secure what exists rather than to expand.

Saturn occupies your 11th house or gives drishti to it. Saturn works well in this bhava. Your income grows slowly and does not fall away. You may gain through long service, through older people, or through work that others find dull. Your elder siblings may have been distant from you, or you may have grown up without one. What you build here lasts.

The eleventh house indicates profits, gains, income, elder siblings, social networks, etc. Since your 11th lord is situated in the 2nd house, representing fixed assets, wealth, family, food, face, voice, and speech, you will enjoy all sorts of luxuries. This planetary combination is considered a dhana yoga or planetary yoga of wealth accumulation. You will have multiple sources of income and will be interested in luxurious vehicles, beautiful homes, and interiors. Your speech and voice will be attractive as your physical personality. Your outlook will be a plus point in your social life. You will have a cordial relationship with your elder siblings. Your social network and friends may become part of your professional life or business. Partnerships formed with your network and connections will be fruitful for you. You will be kind and charitable in society, and it is advised not to become overly proud or greedy as it may harm your fortune. You will not stick to a single source of income, so you will be interested in trying new ventures. Since you have the courage and confidence in your ideas, you will be successful in your undertakings. You will be fortunate after your marriage. Since this planetary combination also warns about health issues and relationship problems, it is advised to maintain a good and healthy lifestyle and family life.

Since Venus is in the 11th house, you will be sensual and capable of keeping your life partner happy. Your marital life will be enjoyable. Your spouse will be financially sound, or you may gain through your life partner. You desire comforts and social life. You will also be happy with your children.

12th House Expenses, Foreign Lands & Moksha ♈ Aries

♂ Mars rules this house and is placed in your 10th house. Occupied by Sun, Mercury.

Your 12th lord has dignity or strength and stands outside the Dusthana Bhavas. The matters of this bhava carry real weight in your life. Your expenditure is large, your foreign and distant connections are significant, and your inner life is unusually well developed. You spend money on the things that matter to you privately.

Your 12th rashi has an average number of ashtakavarga bindus. Your expenditure and your inner life run at ordinary strength. How they play out depends on your 12th lord's condition and on the running dasha.

The twelfth house indicates Moksha, spirituality, secret enemies, pleasure, expenditure, losses, etc. Since your 12th lord is situated in the 10th house, representing Karma, profession, personal growth, fame, awards, etc., you may experience high expenditures while pleasing your social circle, friends, or higher authorities. You may also find it difficult to stabilize your profession or career. You desire to project yourself as righteous, generous, and humble; however, you may have to sacrifice part of your fortune, time, and assets to achieve it. You may not be very fortunate in inheriting parental assets or wealth. This planetary combination suits people working in isolated environments such as minefields, oil rigs, hospitals, high-security workplaces, and prisons. You may have a difference of opinion with your children.

Since Mercury is in the 12th house, you will be intellectual in philosophy, spirituality or astrology. You may have lower self-confidence, and this may hamper your career growth. You will be generally fortunate with long-distance travel. You may have hidden enemies who de-motivate you in different ways.

Since Sun is in 12th house, you will experience spirituality after some suffering and struggles. You are capable of learning from your struggles and experiences and making a fortune out of them. You may experience some issues in progeny and may not be fortunate in getting inheritance or favours from your father.

You are currently running the mahadasha of Mars, your 12th lord. In this dasha your expenditure rises and your visible progress slows. Distance and foreign matters become active. Something develops in you that other people cannot see. These are good years for study, for retreat and for finishing private work, and poor years for seeking recognition.

People who are born with the ascendant sign as either Aries, Cancer (Mars is Yoga Karaka), Leo (Mars is Yoga Karaka), Sagittarius or Pisces has Mars as a functional benefic planet in their birth chart so these people will be getting the most of its positive results if the planet is not further afflicted.

Mars is a natural malefic planet and so there will be some negative effects during this phase of dasha. You may have some disputes with your siblings, some issues related to land and properties are also possible. Accidents due to carelessness and danger from fire or firearms are also seen during this time. Actions taken in haste or without a second thought may land you in trouble. You will feel more active in your career and will be able to complete your tasks with ease. You may become more spiritual during this time. At times you may feel drained out. Both Mars and Mercury are a bit restless and so during this time, you may show some impatience. Your attitude towards others may vary and sometimes you show bitterness. Stay away from gambling and risky businesses.

11 Shodasha Varga Charts — the sixteen divisional lenses

About this section: each divisional (varga) chart magnifies one department of life — D9 marriage and inner strength, D10 career, D7 children, D12 parents, and so on. A planet placed well across many vargas gives durable results. A planet occupying the same sign in D1 and D9 is Vargottama — its promises gain special stability.

Vargottama planets: Saturn — same sign in D1 and D9; their significations carry extra firmness through life.

12 Graha Bala — Planetary Strength — Shadbala, Ishta/Kashta, Vaisheshikamsa, Bhava Bala

About this section: Shadbala totals six classical strength sources (positional, directional, temporal, motional, natural and aspectual). A ratio of 1.0 means the planet just meets its required strength — above 1.0 it can truly deliver, below it under-performs even when well placed. 16 Doshas, Gemstones & Ishta Devata

About this section: doshas are stress patterns that classical texts single out for relationships and karmic weight; most have cancellations, so read the verdicts below carefully. Gemstones amplify their planet, and the Ishta Devata — derived from the Atmakaraka's navamsa — is the personal deity whose worship most naturally supports your soul's path.

Kuja (Mangal) Dosha	Absent — Mars is outside the Mangal Dosha houses.
Kaal Sarpa Dosha	Absent — the seven classical planets are not hemmed within the Rahu–Ketu axis.

17 Five-Year Annual Forecast (Varshaphal) — Tajaka solar-return charts

About this section: Varshaphal is the Tajaka annual chart, cast for the exact moment each year when the Sun returns to its natal position (your solar return). The Varsha Lagna sets the year's overall theme, the Muntha — a point that advances one sign every year from your birth ascendant — highlights the life area that gets activated, and the Varsheswara (Year Lord) colours the year's character. This section reads the next five varsha years; each runs from one solar return to the next, not by calendar year.
