The year at a glance

This report runs from November 2026 to November 2027, and all of it falls within the Mars dasa, your main planetary period. Inside it, the antardasa, or sub-period, of Mercury runs until 25 March 2027. Ketu's runs from 25 March to 21 August 2027, and Venus's begins on 21 August 2027. Venus rules your Taurus ascendant, so that last stretch carries more personal weight. Overall the climate favours consolidation over expansion. Expect steady work, careful money and a home life that tends to feel easier than the rest.

The heaviest single signal is Ketu, the south lunar node. On 5 December 2026 it enters Cancer, the 8th house from your Moon in Sagittarius, a weak sign at 24 rekhas. It also runs your sub-period from 25 March to 21 August 2027. It asks for caution, rest and transparent agreements, though its golden form, the swarna murthi, softens it. Next comes Saturn. It has been in Pisces, the 4th house from your Moon, since 29 March 2025, with only 3 rekhas of its own. It moves into Aries on 3 June 2027 and returns to Pisces on 20 October 2027 in the golden form, a gentler finish. It asks for structure and patience. Jupiter is the counterweight. It sits in Leo, the 9th house from your Moon, with an excellent 6 rekhas, until 25 January 2027 and again from 26 June 2027. Rahu in Capricorn, on a strong 30 rekhas, steadily enlarges how you are seen.

Home is your most supported area, lighter almost all year, with only May 2027 merely steady. Partnership eases in August and September 2027. Study is lighter at both ends of the year. Money is the most testing area, heavy in nearly every month except September 2027. Health asks for pacing from November 2026 to May 2027 and again in November 2027. Work is heavier in April and June 2027, and June is also the month to give your parents extra time. September 2027 stands out as the easiest month overall.

Use this year to build rather than to chase. Keep a steady routine, budget with care, rest when your energy dips and see a doctor if something persists. Put your effort where support already flows: home, learning and the people who widen your view. What you build patiently now tends to last.

Saturn

Sign	From	To	Notes
Saturn in Pisces	29 Mar 2025	3 Jun 2027	turns direct 11 Dec 2026
Saturn in Aries	3 Jun 2027	20 Oct 2027	turns retrograde 9 Aug 2027
Saturn in Pisces	20 Oct 2027	23 Feb 2028

Saturn has been moving through Pisces since 29 March 2025 and stays there until 3 June 2027, turning direct on 11 December 2026. From your natal Moon in Sagittarius this is the 4th house, the house of home, inner peace and emotional ease. The tradition calls this the kantaka, or 'thorn', phase of Saturn. It is best read as a season of consolidation: securing your foundations rather than expanding. Old texts list digestive upset, a sour mood and distance from family. Treat these as themes, not predictions. Saturn is neutral in Pisces. The sign carries an average 29 rekhas (benefic points), but Saturn's own count here is only 3 rekhas, so the weight leans toward heaviness. Because Saturn rules your 9th and 10th houses and sits in the 9th at birth, the strain and the reward tend to land on career, standing, your father or mentors, and your beliefs. Work may pull you from home, and questions of conviction may weigh on you.

From your Taurus ascendant the picture is kinder. Pisces is your 11th house of gains, networks and long-held aims, one of the better places for a demanding planet. Gains tend to come slowly, through sustained effort and established contacts. Saturn also crosses your paaka lagna, a sensitive point for the body, so rest and pace yourself. See a doctor if fatigue persists. It passes over your natal Venus and casts its gaze on your 1st, 5th and 8th houses, including your natal Moon. That brings seriousness to your vitality, your creativity and study, and your shared resources. It also looks at the points for your public career image and for marriage, asking for reliability in both. Between 14 January and 16 March 2027 it sits close to the saham, or sensitive point, for work. In your career and marriage charts Saturn holds 5 rekhas in the 1st house, which supports steady, lasting effort.

For finer timing, this stay began in loha murthi, the iron form, which tends to make the transit deliver its harder side. Until 8 February 2027 Saturn crosses Uttarabhadrapada, a naidhana tara that holds a planet back. It also looks at your star for the mind, so worry may feel louder. From 8 February it moves into Revati, a mitra or friendly tara, and touches your stars for work and homeland. The kakshya windows with a rekha, 28 February to 31 March and 30 April to 3 June 2027, tend to feel lighter.

From 3 June to 20 October 2027 Saturn is in Aries, the 5th house from your Moon, turning retrograde on 9 August. This house covers children, creativity, romance and peace of mind. Old texts mention distance from children, unease and quarrels. Saturn is debilitated, or weak, here and holds only 3 rekhas in a sign of 26. A weak planet tends to show the slower, more frustrating version of a house, so patience in conversation matters. From the ascendant this is your 12th house of expenses and rest. Saturn passes over your natal Sun and Mercury and looks toward your natal Jupiter, your 6th house, and its own natal place beside Rahu. It also touches your public image and your fortune. Budget carefully and protect your sleep. Some help comes through rajata murthi, the favourable silver form, and Aswini, a parama mitra or best-friend tara. It also aims at your star for authority. No kakshya window here carries a rekha.

On 20 October 2027 Saturn returns to Pisces and stays until 23 February 2028, so the 4th-house phase resumes. This time it arrives in swarna murthi, the highly favourable golden form, in the friendly Revati tara. Its whole stay within this report sits in a kakshya with a rekha. That suggests a gentler finish to the home and career themes already begun.

Saturn is not your dasa or antardasa lord in this period, which belongs to Mars. Its effect is therefore a steady background climate rather than the main story. Still, Saturn carries great weight among the transiting planets. The difficult houses from the Moon and its low own count outweigh the hopeful murthi and tara signals, which mostly shape timing. The good 11th house from your ascendant softens the Pisces stays.

What this transit asks is quiet structure. Keep a steady home routine, eat simply, and give family time on purpose. Let your work show your reliability. Build slowly, and trust that what you build now tends to last.

Jupiter

Sign	From	To	Notes
Jupiter in Leo	31 Oct 2026	25 Jan 2027	turns retrograde 13 Dec 2026
Jupiter in Cancer	25 Jan 2027	26 Jun 2027	turns direct 13 Apr 2027
Jupiter in Leo	26 Jun 2027	26 Nov 2027

Jupiter has been in Leo since 31 October 2026, and it moves through three stays in this report: Leo, a retrograde return to Cancer, then Leo again. Jupiter is the planet of wisdom, learning, children, wealth, tradition and the nourishment of the body. In your birth chart it sits in your 2nd house and rules your 8th and 11th, so its transits tend to land on shared resources and change, and on income, friends and long-held aims. Throughout, you are in the Mars dasa, the main planetary period, and Jupiter is not a running period lord. It works as background weather here, not the main event.

Until 25 January 2027 Jupiter is in the 9th house from your natal Moon, one of its classically favoured places. The old texts link it with success, prosperity, children and faith. Read these as themes, not promises. Its own count is 6 rekhas (benefic points), which is excellent, and the sign's total is 28 rekhas short of strong at 29, which is average. Leo is a friendly sign. Together that means steady support rather than drama. From your ascendant Jupiter sits in the 4th house of home and peace of mind. It also casts its aspect, or gaze, on your natal Moon, on Mars in your 10th house of career, and on the Sun and Mercury in your 12th house of rest and spending.

Several finer signals temper that picture. Jupiter takes the copper form, or murthi, this time, which classically delivers less fully. Venus briefly blocks the good result through vedha, an obstruction from another planet, from 13 to 22 November 2026. Jupiter turns retrograde on 13 December 2026. On the brighter side, it crosses Makha, a supportive star from your birth star and one linked with your wider community. Its gaze also touches the points tied to partnership, public image of work, and marriage.

From 25 January to 26 June 2027 Jupiter steps back into Cancer, the 8th house from your Moon. This is classically difficult, and the old texts speak of illness, restriction and grief. Read that as low energy, feeling hemmed in or a heavier mood. Here the signals disagree. Jupiter is exalted in Cancer, its strongest sign, and a strong planet in a hard house tends to show the constructive face of that house: research, inner growth and wise handling of shared money. Yet the sign holds only 24 rekhas, which is weak, and that low total outweighs Jupiter's neutral 4 rekhas, so progress may feel slow. Take care of your health, rest, and see a doctor if something persists.

There is real help in this stay. Jupiter takes the favourable silver form. It crosses Aasresha, a friendly star from your birth star, and turns direct on 13 April 2027. From your ascendant it moves through the 3rd house of effort and communication, over your natal Ketu. It also gazes on your 9th house, where Saturn and Rahu sit, on Venus in your 11th house of gains, and on your arudha lagna, which shows how others see you. In your career chart it favours study and sound judgement. The Mars and Ketu sub-period begins on 25 March 2027.

On 26 June 2027 Jupiter returns to Leo and stays until 26 November 2027, beyond this report. The favourable 9th-house reading returns, again with 6 rekhas. This time the Mars and Venus sub-period starts on 21 August 2027, and Venus rules your ascendant, which gives this stretch more personal weight. Obstruction is heavy now, though. Mars blocks the good result from 5 July to 24 August 2027, and the Sun, Mercury and Venus block it for much of September to early November. The copper form returns as well. As fine timing only, the stretches from 16 July to 21 August and from 7 September to 13 November carry a rekha. From 9 October to 10 November 2027 Jupiter passes close to the point traditionally linked with marriage, which may bring partnership into focus.

Taken together, the Leo stays carry the better promise, but they are diluted by obstruction and the copper form. The Cancer stay sounds harder than it may feel, because Jupiter is exalted there. The weak sign total still advises patience. Between 31 August and 4 November 2027 Jupiter crosses your own birth-star group, a mixed signal, and its gaze touches the star tied to your work. What this transit asks of you is steady learning, honest dealings with shared money, rest when you need it, and generosity towards the mentors and friends who widen your view.

Sensitive nakshatras to watch

From the sodhya pinda method: when Saturn crosses these stars the area asks for care, when Jupiter crosses them it is helped. A minor, experimental indicator.

Rahu and Ketu

Sign	From	To	Notes
Rahu in Aquarius	18 May 2025	5 Dec 2026
Rahu in Capricorn	5 Dec 2026	24 Jun 2028
Ketu in Leo	18 May 2025	5 Dec 2026
Ketu in Cancer	5 Dec 2026	24 Jun 2028

Rahu and Ketu, the two lunar nodes, always sit exactly opposite each other, so read them as one axis: one end tends to grow while the other thins out. Neither node has an ashtakavarga (benefic-point count) of its own, so each is judged by the total points of the sign it crosses. At the start of your period, Rahu has been in Aquarius since 18 May 2025 and stays until 5 December 2026. This is the 3rd house from your Moon, a classically good place for Rahu, linked in the old texts with courage, effort and success. Aquarius carries a very high 36 rekhas, and Rahu is comfortable in this sign. The transit also takes a silver form, which is favourable. It falls in your 10th house of career, over your natal Mars, and on the point that shows how your partnerships look to others. Its nakshatra, Dhanishtha, is a helpful star for you that touches your wider community. Your nerve and drive at work are well supported in these last weeks.

Ketu, on the other end, has been in Leo over the same span. This is the 9th house from your Moon, a classically difficult spot, where guidance and support may feel thinner. Leo has an average 29 rekhas, so the effect tends to be moderate. Ketu sits in your 4th house of home and peace of mind, and casts its gaze on your 10th. It passes through Makha, a very friendly star for you. Keep commitments modest and let restlessness at home settle.

On 5 December 2026 the axis shifts. Rahu moves into Capricorn, where it stays until 24 June 2028. This is the 2nd house from your Moon. The tradition counts that as difficult for energy, comfort and money. But Capricorn holds a strong 30 rekhas, and the transit takes the golden form, the most favourable of all. That tends to make the difficult themes milder and keep finances steady with sensible attention. Rahu now crosses your 9th house of belief, teachers and long journeys, passing over your natal Saturn and natal Rahu. It also lands on your arudha lagna, the image the world holds of you. Expect your public standing and your outlook to be stirred up and enlarged. It also gives an energising glance to your 3rd house of effort.

Ketu moves into Cancer on the same day. This is the 8th house from your Moon, and Cancer is weak at 24 rekhas. This is the side to handle with most care, because Ketu runs your antardasa (sub-period) from 25 March to 21 August 2027. That makes its transit the heaviest single signal here. Expect a climate of worry, sudden change or strain on reputation. Take extra care on the road, and keep agreements transparent. The golden form softens this. So does Ketu's position in your 3rd house from the ascendant, over its own natal place, where it gives calm, unshowy courage. It also glances at your 9th house and your arudha lagna, which can loosen old beliefs.

The nakshatras, or lunar mansions, sharpen the timing. Rahu stays in helpful Dhanishtha until 10 April 2027. It then enters Sravanam, a star that tends to hold it back, until the period ends. Ketu sits in friendly Aasresha until 14 August 2027, which helps during most of its sub-period. After that it moves into Pushyami, a star that holds a planet back and touches your circle of associates. Late 2027 therefore asks for patience on both ends.

Overall, Rahu's side gains throughout, first strongly in Aquarius and then steadily in Capricorn. Ketu's side, average and then weak, is where interest fades and support thins. Put your effort into family finances, steady income and honest growth in how you are seen. Let 8th-house worries be met with rest, caution and quiet reflection rather than force.

Mercury has been in Libra since 26 September 2026, turns direct on 13 November 2026 and stays until 2 December. This is the 11th house from your Moon, a good placement for trade, networking and gains through friends. Mercury also runs your current antardasa, or sub-period. Its own 5 rekhas (benefic points) and the sign's 31 rekhas back it. Yet its iron murthi, the form it takes, and vedha, an obstruction from another planet for most of its stay, hold much of the gain back. Follow up contacts patiently.

The Sun has been in Libra since 17 October 2026 and leaves on 16 November. The 11th house from your Moon is classically a good Sun transit, linked with good health, prosperity and honours. With 6 rekhas of its own, 31 in the sign and a golden murthi, the support is real, and vedha does not block it. The Sun is weak in Libra, though, so reward tends to come quietly through allies. Ask for what you have earned.

Venus has been in Virgo since 6 November 2026, turns direct on 14 November and moves on on 22 November. The 10th house from your Moon is a difficult Venus placement, mixing good conduct with friction around work and reputation. Venus is weak here, holds only 3 rekhas and takes a copper murthi, so its softer gifts are muted. The sign's average 26 rekhas keep things from tipping further. Keep indulgence apart from work and let good conduct carry you.

Mars has been in Leo since 12 November 2026 and stays until 10 March 2027, turning retrograde on 10 January 2027. Mars is your mahadasa, or main period, lord, so this transit weighs most. The 9th house from your Moon is classically unfavourable, hinting at friction with elders, teachers or siblings. Its own 5 rekhas and a golden murthi soften this a great deal, while the sign's 29 rekhas are average. Put the energy into exercise, property work or disciplined study, and ease off new pushes after the retrograde turn.

The Sun enters Scorpio on 16 November 2026 and stays until 16 December. The 12th house from your Moon is classically linked with expenditure and loss. Here the signals are middling: 4 rekhas of its own, 29 in the sign, and a silver murthi, which is favourable, all point to a mild version. Money and energy may flow outward more than usual, and your drive can feel muted. Rest, finish things and spend with purpose rather than chasing visibility.

Venus enters Libra on 22 November 2026 and stays until 1 January 2027. The 11th house from your Moon is one of its best placements, favouring gains, comfort and pleasure that flow in through friends and social circles. Venus is at its strongest here, with 5 rekhas of its own, 31 in the sign and a silver murthi. Vedha touches only a short stretch of the stay. Enjoy this generous climate, and put goodwill into relationships and plans that will last.

Mercury enters Scorpio on 2 December 2026 and stays until 22 December. As your antardasa lord, its movement matters. The 12th house from your Moon is classically difficult, pointing to talk at home misfiring, small expenses or slip-ups, and nervous fatigue. With 4 rekhas of its own, 29 in the sign and a copper murthi, expect a mild but noticeable form. Double-check paperwork, listen before replying and rest well. See a doctor if anything persists.

The Sun enters Sagittarius on 16 December 2026 and stays until 14 January 2027, passing over your natal Moon sign. This 1st house transit is classically demanding, linked with outlay, much travel, discomfort and mental worry. Only 3 rekhas of its own, an average 25 in the sign and a copper murthi leave little to soften it. You may feel restless or irritable, with your will outrunning your stamina. Pace yourself, keep travel and spending simple, and rest.

Mercury enters Sagittarius on 22 December 2026 and stays until 10 January 2027, crossing your natal Moon sign. This 1st house transit is classically difficult, hinting at quarrels, restriction, losses and unreliable advice. With 4 rekhas of its own and 25 in the sign the effect is moderate, and its golden murthi eases it further. Words may come out sharper than you mean. Verify advice before acting on it and keep business dealings clear and in writing.

Venus enters Scorpio on 1 January 2027 and stays until 29 January. Unusually, the 12th house from your Moon is good for Venus, linked with new friends, pleasures, money and gains, though money flows out as well as in. Its own 4 rekhas and the sign's 29 are middling, a golden murthi helps, and vedha dims it only briefly. Expect modest comforts, retreat and quiet intimacy. Set a budget so pleasure does not become overspending.

Mercury enters Capricorn on 10 January 2027 and stays until 28 January. The 2nd house from your Moon is a good Mercury placement, covering earnings, family resources and speech, and as your antardasa lord its promise counts for more. Its own 5 rekhas, a strong 30 in the sign and a silver murthi back it, and vedha is not active. Results tend to come steadily rather than dramatically. Tidy your accounts, negotiate fairly and speak with care.

The Sun enters Capricorn on 14 January 2027 and stays until 13 February. The 2nd house from your Moon is classically difficult, linked with unhappiness, eye strain and worry. The Sun is uncomfortable here, holds 3 rekhas and takes an iron murthi, the least favourable form, so confidence may waver over money or family. Yet the sign's strong 30 rekhas cushion much of this. Expect unease more than real setbacks. Speak gently, rest your eyes and keep finances orderly.

Mercury enters Aquarius on 28 January 2027 and stays until 24 February, turning retrograde on 9 February. The 3rd house from your Moon is classically difficult, hinting at errands, wandering and friction with officials. But this sign holds 36 rekhas, a very high count that outweighs both the verdict and the copper murthi, and Mercury's own 5 rekhas agree. Restlessness tends to turn productive. Keep documents in order and stay courteous with people in authority.

Venus enters Sagittarius on 29 January 2027 and stays until 24 February, crossing your natal

Moon sign. The 1st house is good for Venus, lifting your mood, warmth and affection in partnership. It has 5 rekhas of its own and a golden murthi, while the sign's 25 rekhas are average. Vedha obstructs it throughout this stay, so the lift is gentle rather than full. Enjoy small pleasures, kind gestures and time with the people you love.

Venus	Pisces	15 Apr 2027	4	Favourable

The Sun enters Aquarius on 13 February 2027, moving into the 3rd house from your natal Moon. This is a classically good passage for effort, health and winning ground. It scores an excellent 8 rekhas (benefic points) in its own count, and the sign holds a strong 36 rekhas overall. Its silver murthi, the form it takes this time, is favourable. However, vedha, an obstruction from Leo, holds back much of this stay. Results tend to come through persistence rather than status.

Mercury enters Capricorn on 24 February 2027, the 2nd house from your Moon. This is classically good for earnings, speech and gains. Mercury is your sub-period lord until 25 March 2027, so it counts for more than usual. It has 5 rekhas here and the sign has 30, which is solid backing, and nothing obstructs it. Its copper murthi is unfavourable, so expect steady rather than generous results. It turns direct on 3 March 2027, so recheck any agreements made before then.

Venus also enters Capricorn on 24 February 2027, the 2nd house from your Moon. The old texts link this passage with money, good fortune and family pleasures. Venus has 5 rekhas of its own here, and the sign has 30. Together they tend to make finances, food and family conversation warm and easy. The copper murthi trims the gift a little, and any obstruction is brief. Enjoy shared meals, and keep spending in proportion to what you truly value.

Mars enters Cancer on 10 March 2027, the 8th house from your Moon. This is one of the harder passages, and because Mars is your main period lord, it weighs most this season. It is weak by sign and has only 2 rekhas, while the sign has a weak 24. Its iron murthi is highly unfavourable. Energy may scatter and tempers may run short. Take care with haste, sharp tools and travel. Mars turns direct on 1 April 2027.

Mercury moves into Aquarius on 12 March 2027, the 3rd house from your Moon. The old texts rate this as difficult, citing restlessness, losses and friction with officials. Here, though, the sign's very high 36 rekhas outweigh that verdict. Mercury's own 5 rekhas and a favourable silver murthi add further support. Busy errands tend to become productive. Keep your documents in order and stay courteous with people in authority. Put the extra energy into writing, networking or learning.

The Sun enters Pisces on 15 March 2027, the 4th house from your Moon. The old texts list strain at home and a dip in reputation; read that as reference, not forecast. The Sun has just 3 rekhas here and the sign has 29, so home life may feel tiring. A highly favourable golden murthi eases this. The Sun also crosses a sensitive point linked to bodily comfort, so rest well and see a doctor if something persists.

Venus enters Aquarius on 21 March 2027, the 3rd house from your Moon. This is classically good for respect, wealth and good spirits. The sign's strong 36 rekhas lift the mood. Venus's own 4 rekhas are neutral, its silver murthi is favourable, and any obstruction is brief. Expect pleasant rather than extravagant results: graceful conversation, artistic hobbies and friendly contact with siblings or neighbours. Reach out, share something you have made, and enjoy small outings.

Mercury enters Pisces on 5 April 2027, the 4th house from your Moon. This is classically good for family prosperity and gains. It has an excellent 6 rekhas here, and the sign has an average 29. Against that, Mercury is weak by sign and its iron murthi is highly unfavourable. Vedha from Aquarius also obstructs more than half of this stay. Benefits tend to come in small, everyday ways. Organise household paperwork, talk things through with family, and recheck details.

The Sun enters Aries on 14 April 2027, the 5th house from your Moon. The old texts call this difficult and mention low vitality and worry about opponents. But the Sun is exalted here, which tends to turn the theme into confidence in your own ideas. With 4 rekhas and 26 in the sign, results are moderate. The iron murthi asks you to pace yourself. Rest when tired and channel the energy into one creative or learning project.

Venus enters Pisces on 15 April 2027, the 4th house from your Moon. This is classically favourable for prosperity and comforts, though the old texts note that rivals may also do well. Venus is exalted here, with an excellent 6 rekhas, and the sign has 29. That tends to bring real ease at home. The iron murthi tempers how fully this lands, and obstruction is brief. Beautify your space, and let contentment, not comparison, set the tone.

Mercury enters Aries on 22 April 2027, the 5th house from your Moon. The old texts list this as a time of friction with partner and children. With 4 rekhas, 26 in the sign and neutral dignity, the effect is usually mild: words may land wrongly or plans may feel muddled. A highly favourable golden murthi softens it further. Listen before replying, and check your reasoning twice before any creative or speculative venture.

Mars, your main period lord, enters Leo on 26 April 2027, the 9th house from your Moon, and stays until 5 July 2027. The old texts count this as unfavourable, citing losses, slights and low vitality. Mars's own 5 rekhas soften that considerably, the sign's 29 are average, and a golden murthi is highly favourable. Some friction with elders or teachers is possible. Direct your strength into exercise, property work or disciplined study.

May 2027 – Jul 2027

Planet	Enters	On	House from Moon	Classical verdict
Sun	Taurus	15 May 2027	6	Favourable
Sun	Gemini	15 Jun 2027	7	Needs care
Sun	Cancer	17 Jul 2027	8	Needs care
Mars	Virgo	5 Jul 2027	10	Needs care

Mercury	Taurus	6 May 2027	6	Favourable
Mercury	Gemini	23 May 2027	7	Needs care
Mercury	Cancer	30 Jul 2027	8	Favourable
Venus	Aries	10 May 2027	5	Favourable
Venus	Taurus	4 Jun 2027	6	Needs care
Venus	Gemini	28 Jun 2027	7	Needs care
Venus	Cancer	23 Jul 2027	8	Favourable

Mercury enters Taurus on 6 May 2027, crossing the 6th house from your Moon. This is a classically good passage, linked with recognition and success. Mercury earns a good 5 rekhas (benefic points) here, in a sign of average strength with 29 rekhas, and it takes the favourable silver form. However, vedha, a blocking influence from another planet, applies throughout. Expect a smaller version: clear the detailed tasks you have postponed and win through skill.

Venus enters Aries on 10 May 2027, moving through the 5th house from your Moon. This is a classically good position for standing, charm and a good name, and it touches creativity, romance and enjoyment. Venus earns a good 5 rekhas in a sign of average strength with 26 rekhas. Its copper form is unfavourable, though, and vedha blocks it for the whole stay, so the pleasures tend to stay modest. Give time to art and affection.

The Sun enters Taurus on 15 May 2027 and crosses the 6th house from your Moon. This is classically good for getting the better of rivals and for sound health. Here the Sun is weak in the sign it moves through, and its own 3 rekhas are low. That matters more than the sign's average total of 29 rekhas. Its silver form helps, and vedha blocks only a small share. Steady routine will get you further than force, so handle disputes calmly.

Mercury enters Gemini on 23 May 2027, the 7th house from your Moon. This is a classically difficult passage for quarrels and unease. The sign is weak at 23 rekhas, and Mercury's own 3 rekhas are low. Yet Mercury is strong in its own sign and takes the highly favourable golden form, so friction can lead to clearer agreements. It turns retrograde (apparently moving backward) on 10 June and direct on 5 July. Recheck terms in that window and put them in writing.

Venus enters Taurus on 4 June 2027, the 6th house from your Moon. Old texts warn of harm to reputation and of quarrels. Venus is strong in its own sign, however, and takes the highly favourable golden form. That tends to bring out the constructive side of this house. Its own 4 rekhas are neutral, and the sign is average at 29 rekhas. Everyday frictions may surface, but you have the grace to smooth them. Be tactful at work and moderate indulgence.

The Sun enters Gemini on 15 June 2027, the 7th house from your Moon. This is classically difficult, linked with travel and bodily strain. The Sun earns only 1 rekha here, very poor, and the sign is weak at 23 rekhas. Its golden form eases things somewhat, but the low counts set the tone. Your will may clash with partners or clients, and journeys can tire you. Listen before asserting and pace your travel. See a doctor if discomfort persists.

Venus enters Gemini on 28 June 2027, the 7th house from your Moon. This is a difficult position for Venus, linked with awkward moments, low vitality and friction. The signals agree. Venus has 3 rekhas, the sign is weak at 23 rekhas, and Venus takes the iron form, which is highly unfavourable. Close partnerships may feel touchy, and treats may satisfy less. Keep your expectations of others gentle, talk openly and rest well.

Mars enters Virgo on 5 July 2027. As the lord of your running major period (dasa), its transit weighs most of all in these months. It crosses the 10th house from your Moon, judged difficult, though old texts also mention a change of place and unexpected money. Mars is weak in this sign. It has a neutral 4 rekhas in an average sign of 26, and its iron form is highly unfavourable. Energy at work may scatter, and property or siblings may stir. Take one task at a time.

The Sun enters Cancer on 17 July 2027, the 8th house from your Moon. This is one of its harder positions, linked with low vitality and strain in close partnership. Its own 3 rekhas are low, and the sign is weak at 24 rekhas, so confidence and drive may dip. The golden form softens this a little. Take care of your health, rest properly, and see a doctor if something persists. Quiet reflection serves you better than pushing for recognition.

Venus enters Cancer on 23 July 2027, the 8th house from your Moon. In the Parashari tradition this is a helpful position for quiet comforts, and the worries in some old lists deserve little weight here. Still, Venus is weak in this sign, has a middling 4 rekhas, and the sign is weak at 24 rekhas. Its copper form is unfavourable, and vedha blocks it throughout. Expect modest, private pleasures, and give a partner unhurried attention.

Mercury enters Cancer on 30 July 2027, the 8th house from your Moon. This is classically good, linked with happiness, gains and success. The refinements pull the other way. Mercury is weak here with only 3 rekhas, the sign is weak at 24 rekhas, and its copper form is unfavourable. No vedha is blocking it, but the good tends to arrive modestly. Double-check paperwork, and favour research and careful review over bold commercial moves.

Aug 2027 – Oct 2027

Planet	Enters	On	House from Moon	Classical verdict

Venus	Libra	3 Oct 2027	11	Favourable
Venus	Scorpio	27 Oct 2027	12	Favourable

Mercury enters Leo on 14 August 2027, your 9th house from the Moon. Tradition counts this as a difficult spot, linked with worry and obstacles. Mercury earns a good 5 rekhas (benefic points) of its own here, and Leo holds an average 29 rekhas, so expect delays and second thoughts more than real setbacks. Its murthi, the form it takes for this transit, is swarna, or golden, which helps further. Check paperwork twice and choose your advisers carefully.

Venus enters Leo on 16 August 2027, your 9th house, which favours good fortune, comfort and warmth with a partner. From 21 August 2027 Venus is also your antardasa (sub-period) lord, so it counts for more. Its own 4 rekhas are neutral, Leo's 29 are average, and Venus is weak here. A favourable silver murthi helps. Vedha, an obstruction by another planet, holds it back for much of its stay. Savour small shared pleasures.

The Sun enters Leo on 17 August 2027, your 9th house from the Moon. Tradition calls this difficult, with worries and obstacles around faith, teachers or your father. The Sun is strong in this sign and earns a good 5 rekhas, so your convictions tend to be tested rather than shaken. Leo's 29 rekhas are average. A copper (taamra) murthi is unfavourable and adds some friction. Give time to study or to a mentor.

Mars enters Libra on 24 August 2027, your 11th house, a good transit for gains, authority and a good name. Mars is your mahadasa, or main period, lord, so this transit weighs heavily. Its own 4 rekhas are neutral. Libra's strong 31 rekhas carry more weight, and a silver murthi favours it. Vedha obstructs it throughout its stay, though, so results will need more effort. Push one goal steadily, and accept help from allies or siblings.

Mercury enters Virgo on 31 August 2027, your 10th house, which favours money, success and ease at home. Mercury is exalted here, at its strongest, and earns a good 5 rekhas. Virgo's 26 rekhas are average, and its silver murthi is favourable. Vedha blocks it for its whole stay, however, so the promise tends to arrive in part or later than hoped. Present ideas and write proposals, then follow up patiently.

Venus enters Virgo on 9 September 2027, your 10th house, which tradition calls difficult: good deeds mixed with friction and strain on your reputation. Your sub-period lord is weak here and holds only 3 rekhas, so take care at work. Virgo's average 26 rekhas keep things from tipping further. A golden murthi is a real help and softens the edges. Keep personal indulgence apart from work and avoid careless remarks.

The Sun enters Virgo on 17 September 2027, your 10th house, a good transit for success, honours and recognition at work. Its dignity here is middling, but it earns a good 5 rekhas, and Virgo's 26 are average. An iron (loha) murthi is highly unfavourable, so expect steady rather than showy results, perhaps won with extra effort. Vedha touches it only briefly. Take visible responsibility and finish work that carries your name.

Mercury enters Libra on 21 September 2027, your 11th house, which favours happiness, wealth and pleasant news involving younger people. Its 5 rekhas are good, Libra's 31 are strong, and a golden murthi adds support. Vedha holds it back for a good part of its stay. Mercury also turns retrograde, appearing to move backward, on 7 October 2027, so from then on revisit plans rather than launch them. Follow up contacts and negotiate clearly.

Venus enters Libra on 3 October 2027, your 11th house, one of its best transits for gains, comfort and goodwill through friends. Your sub-period lord is strong in this sign and earns a good 5 rekhas in a strong 31-rekha sign. Vedha barely touches it. Only the iron murthi pulls the other way, so Venus may deliver less fully than the other signals suggest. Invest the goodwill in relationships that will last.

Mars enters Scorpio on 8 October 2027, your 12th house, and stays until 18 November 2027. Tradition links this with expenses, friction with a partner and low energy. Your main period lord is strong in its own sign and takes a golden murthi, which steers spending toward a purpose. But its own 3 rekhas are poor and Scorpio's 29 are only average, so the strain is real. Rest, spend deliberately and speak calmly at home.

The Sun enters Libra on 18 October 2027, your 11th house, and runs on to 17 November 2027. This is a good transit for vitality, prosperity and honours. The Sun earns an excellent 6 rekhas in a strong 31-rekha sign, a silver murthi favours it, and vedha barely touches it. The Sun is weak here, so reward tends to come quietly, through allies and steady effort, rather than in a spotlight. Ask for what you have earned.

Mercury re-enters Virgo on 21 October 2027 while still retrograde, returning to your 10th house, and turns direct on 28 October 2027. It is exalted here and earns a good 5 rekhas in an average 26-rekha sign, so it still favours work and clear communication. But its copper murthi is unfavourable and vedha obstructs it throughout, so results tend to lag. Use this stretch to correct and finish proposals rather than start new ones.

Venus enters Scorpio on 27 October 2027, your 12th house, and runs on to 21 November 2027. Unusually, tradition counts this as a good place for Venus, linked with new friends, pleasures and gains. Venus is neutral in this sign, with a neutral 4 rekhas in an average 29-rekha sign, so results tend to be modest. A copper murthi tempers them further, while vedha touches it only briefly. Enjoy rest and private comfort, but set a budget.

Nov 2027 – Nov 2027

Planet	Enters	On	House from Moon	Classical verdict
Mercury	Libra	5 Nov 2027	11	Favourable

Mercury enters Libra on 5 November 2027 and stays until 26 November, crossing the 11th house from your Moon, a classically good placement. Its 5 rekhas (benefic points), the sign's strong 31 rekhas and a favourable silver form support trade, networking and gains through friends. A vedha, an obstruction from another planet, holds some of this back, so follow up contacts and negotiate clearly rather than expecting quick results.

Life areas

Career

Your work climate opens on its lightest note in November 2026, then settles into a steady run from December 2026 through March 2027. April 2027 and June 2027 are the heavier stretches of your year for work. May 2027 is steady between them, and from July to November 2027 the picture stays steady. This is a relative index built from your transits, so read heavier stretches as a call for patience, not as setbacks.

The lift comes mainly from Jupiter. It has been in Leo since 31 October 2026, the 9th house from your Moon, a classically good place, until 25 January 2027. It returns there on 26 June 2027. Rahu in Aquarius adds support until 5 December 2026. Saturn in Pisces since 29 March 2025 and Ketu in Cancer from 5 December 2026 ask for steady effort. Mars, your running main period lord, crosses Cancer from 10 March to 26 April 2027, so it weighs most in April.

Money

Money is the area where your year runs heaviest. Almost every month from November 2026 through November 2027 counts as a heavier stretch. September 2027 is the one steady month. Because the index is relative, this does not mean loss. It means finances ask for more care, planning and patience than other parts of your life this year. Careful budgeting and avoiding rushed commitments suit this climate well.

Saturn drives most of this. It has been in Pisces, the 4th house from your Moon, since 29 March 2025. It moves into Aries on 3 June 2027 and returns to Pisces on 20 October 2027. Ketu in Cancer from 5 December 2026 adds weight. Mars in Leo gives some support early on. Mercury in Virgo, from 31 August to 21 September 2027, eases September. Saturn's long stay outweighs these brief helpers.

Marriage and relationships

Partnership is one of the calmer areas of your year. It stays steady from November 2026 right through July 2027. August and September 2027 form the lighter stretch, when closeness and easy conversation tend to come more naturally. October and November 2027 return to steady ground. Think of this as a climate for nurturing what you share, not as a promise of any particular event.

Jupiter in Leo supports partnership until 25 January 2027, and again from 26 June 2027. Venus in Scorpio adds warmth in January 2027. Saturn in Pisces asks for patience until 3 June 2027. The lighter late-summer stretch comes from Jupiter, helped by Mercury in Leo from 14 to 31 August and in Virgo from 31 August to 21 September 2027. Mars enters Scorpio on 8 October 2027, and Saturn returns to Pisces on 20 October 2027, so autumn asks for calm.

Children

In matters of children, November 2026 and March 2027 are the heavier stretches. Most other months stay steady. September 2027 stands out as the lighter month of your year in this area. The index is relative, so heavier stretches simply ask for more attention, rest and patience with family matters. They are not a sign of trouble, and lighter months offer no guarantees, only an easier tone.

Saturn in Pisces, under way since 29 March 2025, is the steady background weight until 3 June 2027. Venus in Virgo adds to it until 22 November 2026, and the Sun in Pisces does so from 15 March to 14 April 2027. Venus in Pisces softens late April and early May. The September lift comes from Mercury in Virgo and the Sun in Virgo from 17 September 2027. Mercury returns to Virgo on 21 October 2027 and supports late autumn.

Home and property

Home life is one of the lighter areas of your year. November 2026 through April 2027 reads as a lighter stretch. May 2027 is steady. From June to November 2027 the lighter tone returns. There is no heavier stretch here at all. This climate is a composite measure built from the transits. It compares months within your own year, so lighter means easier footing rather than luck, and it does not point to any particular event.

The main support is Jupiter in Leo, the 4th house from your ascendant, which governs home and inner ease. Jupiter has been there since 31 October 2026 and leaves on 25 January 2027. It returns on 26 June 2027 and stays into late November. Ketu, the south lunar node, in Leo until 5 December 2026 and the Sun there from August to September 2027 add some friction. Mars, your main period lord, crosses Leo too, mostly adding energy to domestic matters.

Education

Study and learning start on a lighter footing in November and December 2026. From January to August 2027 the climate is steady: not heavy, but it asks for patience and regular effort. September to November 2027 turns lighter again, which favours exams, courses or picking up a subject you set aside. These are relative stretches within your own year. They describe the ease of effort, not outcomes.

The steady middle of the year comes mostly from Saturn. Saturn has been in Pisces since 29 March 2025 and casts its aspect on the 5th house from your ascendant until 3 June 2027. It then moves into Aries until 20 October 2027 and still asks for discipline there. Mars in Virgo from July to August adds pressure. Jupiter's return to Leo and Mercury in Virgo from 31 August and again from 21 October lift the autumn.

Parents

Matters around your parents and elders feel lighter from November 2026 to January 2027. February to May 2027 is steady. June 2027 is the heaviest month for this area, a stretch that asks for extra attention, patience and time given to family. July to October settles back to steady, and November 2027 is lighter again. Treat these as shifts in the climate, never as signs of anything specific happening.

The steadier, heavier tone comes from Ketu in Cancer from 5 December 2026 onward. Ketu aspects the 9th house from your ascendant, the house of father, elders and guidance. Jupiter in Cancer until 26 June 2027 does the same. June is the low point because Saturn enters Aries on 3 June and adds its own aspect. Jupiter's return to Leo on 26 June steadies things. Venus in Libra earlier eases the year's start.

Health and vitality

Health is the area to pace most carefully. November 2026 through May 2027 is a heavier stretch, and November 2027 returns to that tone. June to October 2027 is steady. Heavier here simply means your energy may run lower than usual. Good sleep, regular routines and not overloading yourself are worth keeping up. See a doctor if something persists, as you would at any time of year.

The main driver is Saturn in Pisces, your paaka lagna, the sign holding your ascendant's ruler at birth and a sensitive point for the body. Saturn leaves on 3 June 2027 and comes back on 20 October 2027. The Sun crosses your birth star in late December and early January. Venus in Pisces from April to May helps you recover. Mars, your main period lord, aspects your ascendant from late August, so pace yourself then.

Favourable and testing windows

These windows come from the kakshya count, tara and the running dasa. Classical texts use them only to fine-tune a judgement by a few days, never on their own.

More supportive days	Days asking for patience

Supportive practices

Saturn has been in Pisces, the 4th house from your Moon, since 29 March 2025. It moves into Aries, your 5th house, from 3 June to 20 October 2027, then returns to Pisces. Its transit asks for steadiness at home and patience with your own heart and plans. Try chanting Saturn's traditional mantra, Om Sham Shanaishcharaya Namah, quietly on Saturdays. Offer time or food to elderly people or labourers. Keep a simple daily routine with early nights. These practices support you; they are not cures.

Ketu, the south lunar node, enters Cancer, the 8th house from your Moon, on 5 December 2026 and stays there until 24 June 2028. Its transit asks you to let go gracefully and look inward, rather than grip what feels uncertain. A few minutes of quiet sitting or slow, even breathing each morning can help. You might repeat Ketu's traditional mantra, Om Kem Ketave Namah, and visit a Ganesha temple when you can. Simple charity, such as feeding stray dogs, is traditional too. Treat these as gentle support, not as cures.

Appendix

Words used in this report

Gochara	The transit of a planet, read against your birth chart.
Janma rasi	The sign the Moon occupied at your birth.
Rekha	A benefic point in the Ashtakavarga tables.
BAV / SAV	A planet's own Ashtakavarga, and the combined table of all seven planets.
Kakshya	One of eight equal parts of a sign, each ruled by a planet or the ascendant.
Murthi	The "form" (gold, silver, copper or iron) a planet takes for one transit, set by the Moon at the moment it enters the sign.
Vedha	Obstruction of a good transit by another planet in a specific house.
Tara	The quality of a star counted from your birth star.
Arudha pada	The image or outward face of a house.
Paaka lagna	The sign holding the ruler of your ascendant; it stands for the physical self.
Sade sati	Saturn's passage through the sign before, on and after your Moon sign.
Dasa / antardasa	The planetary period and sub-period you are running.

Sources

Rules follow the Parashari system of Maharshi Parashara's Brihat Parashara Hora Shastra: transits read from the natal Moon and other natal points, the divisional charts, Ashtakavarga with its kakshyas, and sodhya pinda; together with the classical gochara rules of murthi, vedha, tara and the special nakshatras. Rahu and Ketu have no Ashtakavarga of their own in Parashara's scheme; they are judged by the combined table and by nakshatra.

Please note

Astrology describes tendencies and timing, not certainties. This report is for reflection and planning; it is not medical, legal, financial or psychological advice, and it should not replace the judgement of a qualified professional. Calculated with the Lahiri ayanamsa and mean lunar nodes. Dates are given in your birth time zone.
